Spotlight of the B. H. S. cast shines feebly through blanket of snow and comes to us in two of the more popular acts in our high school. The first subject is Wanda, secretary of the service club, weighs 117, 6 1/2 in. tall, and has a very nice figure.

Jerry wants to enter he graduation ceremony with a very nice figure.

B. H. S. BROADCAST

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF BATESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL, BATESVILLE, IND., OCT. 2, 1953

It takes to sleep to study during the day, nevertheless, it is to be expected.

Librarians, under the supervision of Miss Carmichael's club, in all libraries to help her time from more usual tasks. Together, the girls make out a uniform set of rules and discuss current problems which affect them all. Their aim is to raise the level and standards of the library and to make it a more harmonious place in which to study. The student librarians and librarians in which they work follows:

Election of Band officers Tuesday, September 8. The band succeeded in electing Virg Freese as secretary-treasurer and Mary Ann Winters as secretary. The main duty of the band is to play at school functions and to receive the other four bands in the city.

Honor Society To Initiate Here

The Batesville Chapter of the National Honor Society plans to initiate a group of eligible sophomores, juniors, and seniors during the first semester of this year.

To be a candidate for membership, a student must have a 75 per cent average or above in all academic subjects. Candidate membership are judged on the basis of standing traits of service, character, and leadership.

Office records are now being checked for a list of such students. Election to actual membership will be determined by the entire school faculty's approving the candidates.

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to stimulate and recognize scholarship. Mr. J. H. Swain is ipso facto chairman of the executive committee of the society. Mr. J. H. Swain directs the society. Members of the faculty committee who organized the Batesville chapter are Miss Nora Wanning, Miss Carmichael, Mr. Alvin Moore, and Mr. Robert Brokamp.

Wins Contest

The Ripley County Chamber of Commerce announced the nation-wide "Voice of the People" contest. First place was awarded to Shirley Jackson of Versailles High School. The winning speech will be submitted in the Indiana State Division competition. Shirley's award consisted of a specially designed plaque and a $25.00 De-Emma Jackson of Versailles High School was second place winner. Shirley was awarded the plaque and money by a representative of the Batesville Junior Chamber of Commerce in a special convocation of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the gym. All her fellow students join in wishing her the best of luck in the National contest.

Rhinies Shudder Under Senior Rule

Initiation took place from the time the school untied its ties before any free as or night slippers. The cute in their shoes with curls or rag boys and girls carry a bucket of toilet paper autographs. The program was used to furnish a period for the entire student body. The program was held at the home of Nancy Todd, Jean Saunders, Sherr Yorn, and Sue Timmerman were called up for a wheelbarrow race. The seniors felt these races were a little bit of fun.
